

I tried to look the other way

ALL MY LIFE ALL MY LIFE

Dear Ciara,

Graphic Designer looking for a place to shine.

Friendly, experienced, incredibly organised and self motivated person with a flair for design and production, looking for challenging opportunities in a vibrant and busy environment. I wish to further enhance and at the same time share my professional expertise. Over 10 years experience, an excellent portfolio of work in branding and print applications.

I have a passion for branding and an acute awareness of the commercial realities of Irish retail. Experienced in developing concepts from start to finish, setting work for print and taking ownership of for project deliverables.

Core skills include extensive design knowledge and excellent production and editing skills. Fast, efficient and flawless attention to detail.

Solid Great experience in top Dublin's advertising agencies, dealing with high profile, international clients. Proven ability to deliver with high quality results, with great degree of creativity and efficiency.

Great experience with photo & fashion industry working on BLOW Magazine and other similar projects.
